

The Bruce Bill~~e~~tin

Doing it for Bill since 2014

ISSUE 83: Monday 14th November – Monday 21st November

Even Andy Mac would be safe to bet that, by now, everyone has either finished their exams or developed a deep hatred of study. Regardless of which one of these boats you're in, you're probably looking for a way to kill time. You're in luck! Inspired by my former maths teacher Mr Lam, who used to put a picture of a lamb in every exam he wrote, the Billetin is proud to introduce Spot the Sheep©; the far more interesting and original version of Where's Wally? Keep your eyes peeled for all your favourite woollen friends in the Billetin.

WHAT'S ON IN CANBERRA

Chances are that this is the peak of Canberra's entertainment for at least another few months so you'd better turn up at 7:30pm on Saturday at the Canberra Theatre to check it out.

Comedians include Cal Wilson, Nick Cody, Ivan Aristeguita, Becky Lucas, and the Bedroom Philosopher, and tickets are only $37 which is about half the price you would pay to see these people in Sydney or Melbourne. Such savings, much wow. You could put a deposit on a house or have a smashed avo on toast with all that cash.

THE WORLD'S ONLY MINDFUL TRIATHLON

10am Saturday 19th Nov @ Commonwealth Park
Nothing will start your morning off better than a 5km run, 90 minutes of guided yoga, and a 30 minute meditation class. This is the first, and only, mindful triathlon in the world.

Contrary to another organisation called Reclaim, this art exhibition aims to recycle trash and turn it into clothing, rather than give trash some megaphones and shout out their racist values. Go to the Craft ACT Design Centre in Civic before this Thursday to see how artists are allowing creativity and environmentalism to walk hand in hand.

Holiday SURVIVAL GUIDE

It's the time of the year we've all been looking forward to... but then begin fretting over. What can I possibly do for 3 months without all my lovely Bruce friends? If I don't have study to put off, what is my excuse for being a couch potato all day? If these questions sound familiar, then you'd better pay close attention to this guide, compiled by our resident experts, on how to enjoy your summer holidays.

1. Don't enjoy them. Think about the future. Can you really afford to go out with your friends when you are going to be paying $6 every time you wash your clothes next year? Spend your days roaming the streets looking for loose change dropped on the ground.
2. Enrol in Hogwarts and learn to be an animagus. Transform into a cockroach; they can survive nuclear blasts. Knuckle down and wait to see whether Trump or North Korea presses the big red button first.
3. Travel to the Solomon Islands. They have lovely beaches there. They're underwater now but that's only because the locals believe that climate change causes sea levels to rise. Remind them that this is a hoax and their eyes will be opened. You'll save them from drowning and be worshipped forever.
4. Pick up a hobby. Put it down again. A new Netflix series requires your time instead.

Well, sounds like a blast. I hope you take all that to heart and enjoy yourselves.

Disclaimer: All of the aforementioned advice has been performed by professionals in controlled environments. Do not attempt to duplicate, recreate, or perform this advice at home.

of the JOKE WEEK

MOVEMBER

Just kidding Brody; no hate, it looks great. Still, it's nothing compared to the champions amongst us doing Movember; Saxon Brown, Errol Gracias, Alex Brown, Brody Caddis, Anthony Dordoy, Tushar Khandelwal, Campbell Melrose, Adrian Schmidt, Will Clark, Scott Vella, and Matt King. Give them a huge round of applause. In fact, give more than a round of applause. Give money! Donations to Movember help to address some huge health problems facing men, including prostate cancer, testicular cancer, and mental health issues. Jump on banter to find the link to donate to our brilliant boys.

1. What is the scale used to measure the spicy heat of food?
2. A teetotaler never does what?
3. Who was the first Sherpa to reach the summit of Everest?
4. When was Leonard Cohen's song 'Hallelujah' released?
5. What is the name of Mickey Mouse's dog?
6. What is the tallest building in the world?
7. What is the capital city of Jamaica?

Trivia

8. In which decade was an automatic timing system first used to record races in the Olympics?
9. Who won the men's and women's singles in the 2016 Australian Open?
10. When was the first toy story movie released?

1. Scoville Scale 2. Drink alcohol 3. Tenzing Norgay 4. 1984 5. Pluto 6. The Burj Khalifa 7. Kingston 8. 1920s 9. Novak Djokovic and Angelique Kerber 10. 1995

