

The Bruce Billetin

Doing it for Bill since 2014

ISSUE #98: Monday 5th June – Monday 12th June

Unless my mind reading skills are wrong, you probably wolfed down your exam pack in one night and are keen for some more sugar. Keep your eyes peeled for the return of the exam fairy and an abundance of exam cookies (fingers crossed).

There are 4 sheep
in this Billetin

There's usually an event in this section, but there's literally nothing on in Canberra this week so here's a poem instead.

Invictus

By William Ernest Henley

Out of the night that covers me,
Black as the pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul.

In the fell clutch of circumstance
I have not winced nor cried aloud.
Under the bludgeonings of chance
My head is bloody, but unbowed.

Beyond this place of wrath and tears
Looms but the Horror of the shade,
And yet the menace of the years
Finds and shall find me unafraid.

It matters not how strait the gate,
How charged with punishments the scroll,
I am the master of my fate,
I am the captain of my soul.

WHAT'S ON IN CANBERRA

Friday 9th June 5pm until Midnight

Russian Church Hall, 3 Matina St, Narrabundah

Yep you heard it here first; dumplings and vodka go together. If you're sick of Mooseheads and want to have some tasty dumplings along with your drinks, head over to join Canberra's Russian community for what will certainly be an eventful night.

Monday 5th June 10am

Canberra Theatre Centre

Miss the good old days? Go dance along to the sickest tunes ever to grace your ears with your old pals The Wiggles! Look, it's a bit of a boring week in Canberra so this is the best I could do. Deal with it. Tickets available here: <http://bit.ly/2sqnukr>

LAW STUDENTS

Australian Federal Police have issued a nationwide warning following multiple incidents at Bruce Hall, Canberra. Spokespersons for the AFP have confirmed these incidents have revolved around a number of rabid Law students residing at Bruce who have been terrorising other residents with endless complaints about their degree. Police have been supervising the college for the past few days, but are yet to arrest any of the students as they just keep talking and won't leave the officers any time to explain why they are being detained.

"You wouldn't believe some of the stuff we've seen at that college" stated Police Commissioner Gordon in a recent press conference. "Bruces can't even walk to the bathroom without fear of being ambushed by a Law student wanting to rant about how much they've been studying recently. One of our officers was doing a patrol down the hallway on the 3rd floor, and a Law student jumped out of the garbage chute and began harassing him. The poor man may never recover from that experience. They're just so desperate to tell everyone how much harder their courses are than everyone else's!"

After the first day of the peacekeeping operation, AFP officers were issued with industrial strength earmuffs to preserve their eardrums from the frequent bursts of deranged screaming emanating from Bruce. Various humanitarian organisations across the globe considered crowdfunding ear protection for residents to use as well. However, the Bruce CRC told them not to waste their energy, as almost all residents have already invested in earmuffs to block out the jackhammer symphony currently performing on the stairs in the Quad.

If you find yourself approached by a Law student over the next few weeks, please take the following precautions to ensure your safety:

- Do not make eye contact
- Back away slowly
- Do not display any interest in their exams
- If you cannot avoid a conversation, admit your degree is easier than theirs in order to prevent conflict
- As a last resort, play dead
