

THE BRUCE BILLITIN

Doing it for Bill since 2014

ISSUE 03: Monday 29th February- Sunday 6th March

The next week and a half is a big one at Bruce, one full of surprises, adventures and probably many regrets. Not only is the GSA launch happening this Thursday, but also Commencement, and on the following Monday (most importantly IMO) is the OGM. Don't hesitate to run for a position in one of the sub-committees or for the CRC, get involved, and good luck to everyone!

GSA LAUNCH- Thursday 3rd March

This weeks marks the launch of the position Bruce Hall Gender and Sexuality Advocate. To celebrate this, there will be an event taking place in South Quad one which will be sure to get you tap dancing to the beat of our very own talented musicians, drinking some quality bevs, or even chowing down on some delicious food.

So be sure to come down on Thursday the 3rd of March at 7pm, for what is sure to be a great night!

Bonsai week is happening at the Arboretum. So that's apparently a thing.

THE MANY WONDERS OF CANBERRA

Lighten up this week with the Enlighten Festival 2016. This event will be running from the 4th- 12th of March and is a major event on any Canberrans calendar (probably one of the only ones as well). Out of the individual events which comprise the greater whole, here are a couple which the Billitin has chosen for your browsing pleasure:

- Night Noodle Market 5pm till Late: With 20 stalls, all selling delicious food from Japanese Peruvian fusion to soft pillowy Bao, this is going to be the event to go to for you food lovers
- Architectural Projections: Lighting up our national monuments will be architectural projections of lights and designs
- Musical performances: Throughout the week there will be musical performances from bands like Mansionair and The Ansah Brothers.

There is loads more on, so check it out at enlightencanberra.com.au/events/

Tour de Bruce – A look on the inside

Hark to me readers, for this week I went undercover, posing as someone interested in the Tour De Bruce, so that I could bring to you all the juicy details as to this most extraordinary of events.

What is it?

A bike ride of epic proportions, in which a group of our very own Brucies go for a ride to raise money for NIMHR.

Who can do it?

Anyone! You just need to come along to the trainings, and you don't even have to have done any riding previously.

When is it?

Sometime towards the end of the year, which gives us plenty of time to train and get ready

Who can I talk to?

Tamara is the person to talk to regarding this, but word has it that a certain Mad Eye Mudie has been involved in getting this to run.....

The only question seemingly remaining is why are you still sitting here reading this? This event is something uniquely Bruce and anyone can do it, so come along and give it a shot!

Commencement: Let the Games Begin

So now the year has begun, classes have well and truly started, and now there is just one thing that we are all waiting for with bated breath.... Commencement!

One of the most important nights of the Bruce Calendar, Commencement kicks off the year officially, with great food, free drinks (FREEEEEEEEEEEEEE!) and a guest speaker who is sure to be an interesting one to listen to, Senator Doug Cameron. Born in Scotland, and having travelled to Australia as part of the 10-pound pom program, Senator Doug Cameron has lead an interesting life, and being famous for his passionate nature, is sure to be a good one to listen to!

So make sure to come along, have a good time, and enjoy a more official evening at Bruce.

OGM- Don't forget

Hey everyone, don't forget that this coming Monday the 7th of March there will be the Ordinary General Meeting! We need 75 people there to make quorum so that I can bang my gavel as loud as I want.

If you would like to run for a position, make sure to get a nomination form and send it through along with a candidate statement. Good luck!
