

The Billetin

Doing it for Bill since 2014

Issue 114: 13th November – 19th November 2017

There are two Max Moffats hidden in this week's Billetin!

Sadly, "If you are Luan" will not be returning this week – although I did have requests for other variations, including "If you are Ethan". I think you can see why the segment has been ended. This week, enjoy an extra-large trivia section, to serve as more procrastination!

Max again spent a significant portion of the meeting once again talking about social psychologists

What's on in Canberra? – should be good stuff right, we're the 3rd best city in the world!Obstasplash*When: Saturday 18th – Sunday 19th NovemberWhere: Bungendore Showgrounds

It's a bit of a trek (technically it's in NSW) but looks super fun (or at least they have a good video on their website). It's a giant inflatable obstacle course/water park in the middle of a park. $37 for entry.

Special Documentary Screening: "Fastball"*When: Wednesday 15th NovemberWhere: ANU School of Music

If you like sports, films, or procrastination, this seems like a pretty cool thing to see. This movie has gotten a rating of 89% on Rotten Tomatoes, so it should be good to get along to!

Women's Ashes 2nd T20 (Australia vs England)*When: Sunday 19th NovemberWhere: Manuka Oval

Summer means cricket! There's two women's T20 matches at Manuka this year, with the second on the 21st. If you were paying attention over the weekend, you would've heard about Ellyse Perry's phenomenal 213 not out in the Ashes Test. These two games are an opportunity to see some of the best cricketers in the world in action.
