

THE BRUCE BILLITIN

Doing it for Bill since 2014

ISSUE 21: Monday 1st August – Monday 8th August

Term 3 is a busy term this year, with so many events and happenings. With everything that is going on it can be hard to find time to kick back and relax. But have no fear, the Billitin shall continue to provide you all with an easy respite from the daily going ons of Bruce Hall, so put your feet up and grab your nearest copy, because every now and again we all need a bit of Bill in our lives.

THE MANY WONDERS OF CANBERRA

CANBERRA SCAVENGER HUNT

6TH & 7TH 1pm Canberra Glassworks

When Canberra meets the Amazing Race meets a Treasure hunt meets walking tour, you get the Canberra Scavenger hunt. Bring a couple of friends and explore the city finding clues and performing challenges. If you're keen to escape the Bruce bubble, and see a bit more of Canberra, this one's for you. PUBLIC LECTURES

TRANSPARENCY ANU: What is corruption?

3rd August 6pm Engineering Lecture Theatre

Come to the launch of Transparency International's ANU branch as they attempt to answer for us what is corruption? Listen to Dr Kath Hall and the former Chief Integrity Officer of Tasmania Ms Diane Merryful talk about its current definitions and the state of corruption in Australia's own government.

CLIMATE CHANGE AND THE HUMANITIES

4th August 12:30 JG Crawford Building

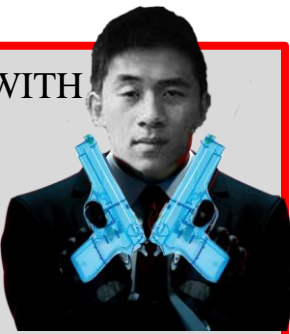

This lecture asks what can those in the humanities do to contribute to our battle with climate change, in a field typically dominated by natural scientists and the policy sciences. Professor Dipesh Chakrabarty will seek to educate you all about this important side to a sometimes overlooked area of this truly global issue.

The problem is that the people with the most ridiculous ideas are always the people who are most certain of them- Bill Maher

HOW TO GET AWAY WITH MURDER – With Jimmy ‘The Hitman’ Li

Murder is only illegal if you get caught. So said my mentor, Chuck Norris, when I travelled Through the Himalayas to learn at his feet. No more is this evident than in Murder Week, the week which makes the Hunger Games look like a poorly written vehicle for Jennifer Lawrence to gain some action hero cred. Some say murder week is just a game, some say its not important. They are wrong. Murder week is deathly serious, just ask my 326 victims last year. However, as all wisemen know, there are times when it is necessary to pass your wisdom on to the next generation.

1. Never Go alone: Go everywhere with a friend, even into the toilet. There can be no boundaries if you truly want to be protected.
2. Don't Trust Anyone: A slight caveat to the above point, NEVER TRUST ANYONE. If a friend invites you over for a lolly cup, DON'T GO. If someone offers to be your 'friend' for point one, DON'T LET THEM. If someone says they found your key card which you 'lost', STAY AWAY FROM YOUR ROOM.
3. Get Close: Water pistols don't have much range believe it or not, but they do have one key advantage, size. Small, they can be hidden out of site and produced at the last minute to go off with a bang and get your unsuspecting victim.
4. Stay Unseen: The only thing better than a silent assassin is one who is never seen. Find a good hiding place, whether it be at the top of the tree outside your victim's balcony, or underneath some stairs, a good hiding spot will both stop you being found, and also allow you to shoot your victim without a witness.
5. Don't let anyone know your true victim: The Bruce rumour mill is infamously swift, so never mention your true victim lest they find out. The canny assassin even tells people the wrong victim.....

PUBLIC SPEAKING- Wed in the JCR at

Get ready for the Bruce internal public speaking competition. As Matt Bowes warned, this will be an opportunity for much of Bruce to let out their internal angst, including you! Get a speech prepared on one of the two topics, 'What a time to be alive' or 'Living life on the Edge' and bring out for all of Bruce to hear. Just shoot Mina, Harry or Matt B a message and get prepping your speech if you want to get involved.

JOKES OF THE WEEK

I asked my priest, 'Is it OK if I make jokes about Jesus Christ and the Cross?' He said, 'Just make sure you nail it.'

'Son I don't think you're cut out to be a mime' 'Was it something I said?' asks the son. 'Yes'.

I just deleted all the German names off my phone. It's Hans free.
