

The Billetin

Doing it for Bill since 2014

Issue 117: 19th – 26th February 2018

Something is hidden in this Billetin! Remember to do this tonight Blacker!

Here we go – classes have begun. To celebrate the week and a half that has been, this Billetin includes highlights from the best event of O-Week; the Scavenger Hunt! The best articles which were written by teams have been published in this week's edition. Good luck for the coming semester!

CRC Minutes of O-Week 2018: Highlights

(Because who actually reads them)

Daily discussions of when O-Week shirts will arrive

"F*** you Max" – Tom Weight

"Cheeky wink wink" – Joshua Robinson

Celine got free food at Nandos because of her shirt

"F***ing first years" – Max Moffat, President

O-Week Photos

If you wanna see some great photos from everything we got up to during O-Week, head over to "Bruce Hall Resident's Photos" on Facebook to see your snazzy pics!

What's on in Canberra?

ACTEWAGL Royal Canberra Show

When: 23rd – 25th February

Where: Exhibition Park

It's a royal show... just in Canberra. Expect rides, animals, food.

Bald Archy Prize 2018

When: 8th February – 12th March

Where: Watson Arts Centre
A parody of the Archibald Prize, the Bald Archies is a competition for satirical artworks, judged by a cockatoo.

Trivia

1. British Prime Minister Theresa May has a degree from Oxford in what subject?
2. Which meringue-based dessert is named after a Russian ballerina?
3. What AFL "first" did Eleni Glouftsis achieve on May 21st last year?
4. Which monarch presented the first Victoria Cross?
5. What is nyctophobia a fear of?
6. Which Queenslander scored 170 in the Sheffield Shield over the weekend?
7. What is the deepest lake in Australia?
8. What does DNA stand for?
9. Where is a lunula found on the human body?
10. "In my younger and more vulnerable years, my father gave me some advice that I've been turning over in my mind ever since" are the first words of which novel?

Answers

1. Geography, 2. Pavlova, 3. First female field umpire, 4. Queen Victoria, 5. Darkness, 6. Matthew Renshaw, 7. Lake St Clair (Tasmania), 8. Deoxyribonucleic Acid, 9. Fingernail, 10. The Great Gatsby

Scavenger Hunt reclaims title as “the best event of O-Week”

The word “best” gets thrown around haphazardly in O-Week as frequently as a frisbee: the best pod, Best & Less Summer sales and the best toga party in the southern hemisphere. But as Bruce secretary/refrigerator striptease Matthew Blacker stated to each passer-by in the foyer and on Bruce Hall Banter last week: “welcome to the best event of O-Week”.

Whilst the omission of refrigerator and handcuff related activities left many participants in a state of surprise, the need for multiple renditions of Smash Mouth’s “All Star” was described as “classic Blacker”.

Many groups experienced a minor hiccup in the Specsavers store, being told rather passive-aggressively to “say the line in the corner”. However, the courtesy of pedestrians to agree to impromptu engagements was reassuring.

Blacker finished an interview by stating “the only better event in the ANU calendar is 40 Hours of Film, you should check out my video from last year. And oh, by the way, I did IB...”

BREAKING NEWS: Blacker caught kinkshaming

Matthew Blacker, Secretary of the Bruce Hall CRC, tells us since 2017 not to “kinkshame” following his incident during the 40 Hours of Film Challenge. He was compromised in a freezer, very close to naked, his hands cuffed in metal chains and pink fluff.

To deny anyone the right of shaming yourself in such a position is acceptable – but to then shame ANOTHER for something similarly explicit is UNFORGIVEABLE. At Bruce, we stand for diversity and privacy. When Joshua Robi nson designed his room in the theme of E.L. James’ best-selling “Fifty Shades” franchise, he did not believe that anyone would dare invade his privacy so much as to enter his room, let alone publicise his private deliberations to the entire community on Bruce Hall Banter.

Blacker should feel ashamed at having initiated such a butterfly effect of comments which in turn describe Josh’s actions and personal preferences with disgust and malice. Blacker’s shame lies forever and entirely in this hypocrisy.

A Bruce Hall Guide to printing the “Bee Movie” script

1. Arrive at the computer lab, situated in the BN room. You will be able to recognize this room by it being full of other teams also completing the scavenger hunt.
2. Turn on the computer.
3. Sit at the computer for 5 minutes while it powers up.
4. Wait for someone to question why you are printing the entire “Bee Movie” script.
5. Continue waiting; this time for Microsoft Word to power up.
6. Copy and paste the entire “Bee Movie” script into a Word Document.
7. Printer entire “Bee Movie” script (double sided)
8. Enter a period of regret for all the paper you just wasted.
9. Enter of a subsequent of regret for why you even signed up for this scavenger hunt.

You now have your “Bee Movie” script! The regret is minimised by fitting the script onto 3 pages.

