THE MANY WONDERS OF CANBERRA

20th JAPANESE FILM FESTIVAL 14th -23rd October Capitol Cinemas, Manuka

Founded by Sydney's Japanese Foundation back in 1997, the Japanese Film Festival has blossomed into the largest of its kind in the entire world, and this year looks set to be a good one. The lineup includes a special screening of the original 1954 Godzilla, as well as other more contemporary classics of Japanese cinema. If you are interested find out more at:

FUTURE POSSIBLE: TEXT FUTURES Wednesday 12th October, 6pm Gorman Arts Centre

Leena Van Deventer, game developer, educator and author explores the power of interactive storytelling through the medium of games. She questions how games are normally relegated to the trash can of pop culture, despite the increasingly creative digital experiences which draw on the power of narrative storytelling in this compelling conversation about the future's landscape. Tickets are available online for $15 and include drinks and light refreshments.

LAW & HUMAN RIGHTS ADVOCACY Thursday 13th October, 1pm Law Link Theatre

How does advocacy intersect with law? How can you use your legal training to work for changes in policy in Australia and in the region? This workshop asks students to reflect with lawyers and advocates Priscilla Chia and Guy Ragen on these questions. It's a great opportunity to listen to some experts in their fields and find out more about the positive side of your legal degree (if there is one...)

PUBLIC LECTURE: The Nauru Dilemma Monday 17th October, 12:30pm, Acton Theatre

Nauru is something we have all heard about, however it is rare that we get a chance to chat to someone who understands the dilemmas which face workers every day in these centres. Come and listen to Paul Ronalds, CEO of Save the Children discuss how they negotiated these dilemmas to ensure it was always acting in 'the best interests of the children'.
