

THE BRUCE BILLITIN

Doing it for Bill since 2014

ISSUE 20: Monday 25th July- Monday 1st August

While classes often take a backfoot during bush week, week two might actually be a decent time to start looking at catching up and getting sorted. Although with everything going on this week, that might get a bit difficult, as we sure as hell weren't thinking of letting you all rest up after bush week!

THE TRUFFLE FESTIVAL 2016

CANBERRA REGION

JUNE TO AUGUST

ANU 70th ANNIVERSARY

1st August Various locations

On the 1st August ANU celebrates its 70th Anniversary, and hence it is a day of celebration and reflection for the university. From 11am you can either catch a series of talks looking at where we've been and where we're going as an institution at Llewellyn Hall, or catch it live via facebook.

That's not all though! With all the recent money coming in, ANU have even splurged and are having both a BBQ and a heritage tour (wonder if our dining hall is on it?) Go to the ANU events page online for more details as to all these events.

CANBERRANG 2016: The Undead Take Manhattan

30th July 11am Garema Place

Head to Garema place to see the undead shuffle, swing, groan and step in Canberra's annual swing dance festival. This year's theme is the Undead take Manhattan, so you can expect to see fangs and fur alongside New York Flappers. The Canberra Big band will be playing, and you may even be able to convince the dancers to dance with you, so head on down for something you probably wouldn't see in any other city in Australia (not sure if that's a good or a bad thing).

POLITICAL SCANDAL BUTTERY NIGHT

July 28th 8pm in the JCR

Feeling dissatisfied with the election? Did your eye catch that rare piece of news about some political scandal in a far flung corner of the world the one time in recent memory you've even glimpsed a newspaper (#bringthemback)? Then bring out your inner John Oliver and come as your favourite political scandal to the Social Sub-committee's buttery night, alongside a friend from outside of Bruce.

BATYR AT BRUCE

7pm in the SCR 26th July

Batyr are coming to Bruce this Tuesday to talk to all of you about mental health at uni. Listen as some brave people who have been through incredibly tough situations talk to you about their own personal experiences with mental health. There will be food from the cooking club, so come down, learn something new, and educate yourself about mental health within the university community.

BRUCE HALL BALL

ON THE FIRST OF AUGUST 2016
TICKETS WILL GO ON SALE AT THE FRONT OFFICE

PRICE: $55 for Residents, $80 for non-residents (15 tickets available for non-residents)

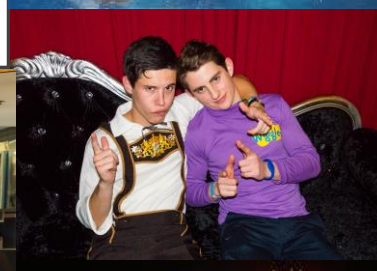

WHERE: Woden Hellenic Club

WHEN: Friday 19th August

THEME: Neverland

The Biggest event of the Bruce hall social calendar is here!. A night which the Beatles claim is bigger than Jesus, a night larger than Donald Trump's ego, and with more banter than the Billitin! A night which Chuck Norris himself described as 'pretty good' and Kevin
Rudd said was better than backstabbing Jules.
A night which persuades even the likes of Sagar and Saxon to go out, and puts Priscilla's costumes to shame.

SO GET READY, GET PUMPED AND GET YOUR TICKETS FOR THE BRUCE HALL
BALL FOR 2016!

IMPORTANT NOTICE

All of you should have received an email with a link to vote on the resolutions discussed at the SGM.
Don't forget to vote on them as it is super important that we can go to the Chancellery with the requests of the whole community.
