

BRUCE 'BILL' ITIN

FRIDAY 15 AUGUST 2014 – FRIDAY 22 AUGUST 2014

Deregulation and university funding debate

If you have concerns about the proposed deregulation of university fees, there are two upcoming events at ANU whereby you can raise your concerns. On Monday there is a forum with ANU Vice Chancellor Ian Young and on Wednesday there is a rally in Union Court as part of the very 'unhappy' birthday celebrations (?) for Education Minister Christopher Pyne. Details are provided below.

Forum with Ian Young

All are welcome to participate in a constructive dialogue and hear a diversity of views on the possible changes to higher education in this country.

Pannelists

Professor Ian Young AO, Vice-Chancellor ANU
Ms Belinda Robinson, CEO, Universities Australia
Mr Cam Wilson, ANUSA President

Venue: The Auditorium, China in the World Building (188), Fellows Lane, ANU

Date: Monday, 18 August 2014

Time: 12:30 PM - 1:30 PM

Enquiries: ANU Events on 6125 8415

Union Court rally

The National Union of Students has called a National Day of Action on August 20, which means there will be a rally on every campus around Australia.

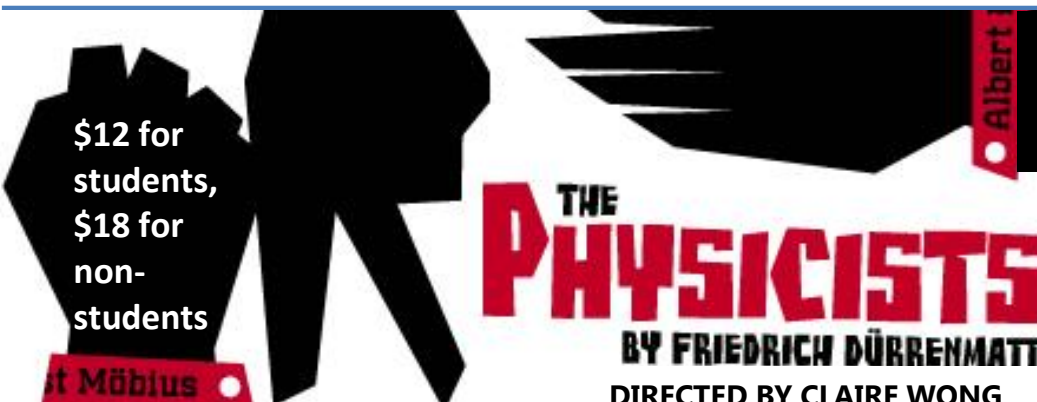

ANUSA is on board because the federal budget's treatment of higher education and welfare is an attack on students, they believe. The reasons for the protest stem from:

- 20% cut to public funding for uni courses
- Deregulation of fees allowing unis to charge whatever they want = $100,000 degrees
- Real interest on student loans up to 6% p.a. so debt grows even when unemployed/kids
- Earn or learn Newstart + Youth Allowance so unemployed under 30s not helped

Venue: Union Court

Date: Wednesday 20 August 2014

Time: 1pm

BRUCE PLAY 2014

The world's greatest physicist, Johann Wilhelm Möbius, is in an asylum under the care of the psychiatrist Doctor von Zahnd, haunted by disturbing visions of King Solomon. With him are two other equally deluded scientists: one who thinks he is Einstein, another who believes he is Newton. However, it soon becomes clear that these three are not the harmless lunatics they appear to be...

28th, 29th and 30th of August, 7.30-9.30

HISTORY LC EVENT

History as wonder – Guest Lecture

Does history begin with wonder? This is the question that Deputy Vice-Chancellor, and renowned historian Professor Marnie Hughes-Warrington is seeking to explore in her current research - and on which, she has happily agreed to share with us some of her thoughts in a guest lecture.

Not only will she seek to shed light onto the wondrous world of history, but the wondrous in history. From the Ancient Greeks through to today - she traces the relationship between wonder and history - exploring how the notion of 'sensible' history has changed.

Please join us in the foyer for complimentary refreshments from 5pm, with the lecture beginning shortly after at 5.30. This event is free, and proudly hosted by the ANU History Learning Community

Speaker/Host: ANU History Learning Community

Venue: Auditorium, Centre for China in the World, Fellows Road, ANU

Date: Wednesday, 20 August 2014

Time: 5:00 PM - 6:30 PM

CALC EVENT

Creative Writing Workshop

Kim Mahood, the ANU's HC Coombs Creative Arts Fellow for 2014 and author of award-winning book, Craft for a Dry Lake, will be facilitating a creative writing workshop. During the approx. 1 hour session, you will be able to discuss your writing process, themes and habits. Depending on numbers, one-on-one advice may also be available. The session aims to provide an opportunity for aspiring writers to gain experience and receive guidance with their work. All attendees should try to bring along a sample of writing that they wish to be workshopped. Light refreshments will be provided.

Tuesday September 30, 7pm

Manning Clark Centre Theatre 6

UPCOMING EVENTS

Aston Shuffle

Saturday 16 August

On the eve of the release of their feverishly anticipated album, Photographs, The Aston Shuffle announce a run of forthcoming national Australian tour dates. A little more than a month ago the band returned to the live circuit with a string of sold out performances for their break out single, Tear It Down. Just when you thought you'd seen it all, the band stunned crowds with the closing performance of the title track that lit up Instagram (#tearitdown) and still has people talking.

National Campus Band Comp

Thursday 28 August, 8pm

The biggest live band comp in Australia ANU, UC and CIT competitors will battle it out for the ACT Final of NCBC at ANU Bar. ... A fantastic selection of prizes is up for grabs, courtesy of our sponsors – prizes to be confirmed. The winning ACT band will then go on to compete at the National Final.

One Day Tour

Friday 26 September

With the release of contagious new single Love Me Less, One Day, the crew comprising of Horrorshow, Spit Syndicate, Jackie Onassis and Joyride, announce their album and tour Mainline, where you'll be treated to each playing individual sets, followed by a collaborative finale with all seven members on stage together for the first time ever.

ARTS

Congratulations Hugh!

Third place winner, Interhall Public Speaking

UPCOMING:

- Bruce Talent Night: Wednesday 20 August, 7pm
- Interhall Talent Night: Wednesday 27 August, ANU Arts Centre
- Bruce Hall Play: Thursday 28 August – Saturday 30 August

SPORT

UPCOMING GAMES:

- AFL: 2.30pm, Sunday 17 August: Bruce v Burgmann
- Netball: 8pm, Monday 18 August
- Soccer: Friday 15 August
 - Womens: 5pm, Bruce v Griffin
 - Mens: 6pm, Bruce v Griffin
- Badminton: Friday 15 August, ANU Gym (all weekend)

Join the crowd of ANU students running from Canberra to Bondi! Its not as bad as it sounds, as you run a daily 5km leg amongst your team. Fo r more details, speak to Joe Dodds.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

Q: Did you hear about the hungry clock? A: It went back four seconds.