

The Bruce Billetin

Doing it for Bill since 2014

ISSUE #93: Monday 1st May – Monday 8th May

Congratulations to the Bruce Band for an incredible performance at Big Night Out last week! Also, a big thank you to the brave people who participated in and/or donated to the World's Greatest Shave. The rest of the semester is still packed with heaps of sports, arts, and social events so get excited for another good few weeks.

WHAT'S ON IN CANBERRA

AUTUMN COLOURS IN THE COURTYARDS

Australian Parliament House, 3.3km from CBD
22 Apr - 3 May 2017

If you still haven't been a tourist in Canberra, what better way to start than with a tour of the private courtyards in Parliament House? The leaves are about to drop faster than Turnbull's public support if he goes through with the Adani deal, so be sure to get your tickets asap. Available here:

NEW ORLEANS TO PARIS

King O'Malley's, 0.2km from CBD
4 May 2017

Join the Alliance Francaise at King O'Malleys from 6-8pm for a retro style evening of live jazz from the golden era when the music of New Orleans invaded Paris. Bookings are necessary so go to https://afcanberra.slsvc.com/community/event-rsvp/?event\_id=306 if you're keen.

ANU Arts Centre: May 3rd-6th and 10th-13th

ANU's interhall musical, Into The Woods, brings together the beloved childhood stories of Cinderella, Rapunzel, Jack (of Beanstalk fame), Little Red Riding Hood, and the Baker and his Wife.

Brucies are involved in all aspects of the production; from directing it, to singing, and performing in the orchestra. It will be one of the last performances ever shown in the ANU Arts Centre as it is scheduled for demolition soon after the closing night. If those still aren't sufficient reasons for you to go, then turn your attention to the ridiculously cheap tickets at only $20 each! Bargain of the century; it's a must.

Get your tickets here:

P.S. they spent some serious dollarydoos on the set and special effects so get keen

MISSING PERSONS

Caramel Slice – Last seen in early 2017

Chicken Schnitzel – Last seen in late 2016

If you have any information about the missing persons pictured above, please contact the National Missing Persons Coordination Centre as soon as possible so we can help return them to their families.

Caramel Slice was described by many of her friends as reclusive and only seemed to pop up every week or two in 2016. However, this long disappearance has justified her classification as a missing person. Police suspect that she was stolen by a resident from either Fenner Hall or UniLodge, as they have a habit of robbing Bruce of things; most notably a placing in Big Night Out. Caramel Slice's position in the dessert fridge has recently been filled by Strawberry Mousse, a post-dinner treat who has been reminding residents of their exam results throughout this semester; consistently disappointing. Caramel Slice's family have recently put out a statement on national television begging for any clues about her location: "This situation is even less appealing than Dan Hellig-Smith's back hair pre-World's Greatest Shave. We need Caramel Slice back in our lives as soon as possible or we fear that the Bruce culture will suffer irreversible damage".

Chicken Schnitzel's weekly presence at Thursday night dinners has been missing for so long that new residents have not even become acquainted with his crispy skin and internal warmth. In his absence, dinner on Thursdays has become as sloppy and unsatisfying as certain other things which tend to happen on Thursday nights. However, some Bruce residents have disagreed about Chicken Schnitzel's value in the Dining Hall and have claimed that, like many Burgmann residents, he was completely insufferable. "If everybody says something is amazing" said a friend of Chicken Schnitzel who wished to remain unidentified, "then you form some really high expectations for it. Just like the Burgmann Band who performed at BNO, he's got a good reputation but, in reality, he's full of nasty gristle and makes you feel sick. Also, Chicken Schnitzel was always covered in salt, and there's more than enough of that in these Billetin articles so we'll be fine without him".
