

THE BRUCE BILLITIN

ISSUE 16: MONDAY 10 AUGUST – MONDAY 17 AUGUST

MURDER WEEK

Begins Thursday 13th August

IT'S that time again – where friends become enemies and enemies get a chance to spray water in each others faces. I'm talking, of course, about Murder Week! Will the cunning Vienna reign supreme once again? How many victims will Jo Davies claim? Can Cormac get past day 1 this time? Get excited for another week of homicide-driven excitement!

DYLAN MORAN: OFF THE HOOK

Friday August 14, 8pm, Canberra Theatre Centre

DYLAN Moran, star and creator of ABC TV's Black Books is back in Australia with a brand new show, Off the Hook. Searing observations and sumptuous imagery, painted across a large fraying canvas with cruel, curmudgeonly Moran-esque brush strokes and all delivered with Dylan's renowned, shambolic charm...It's simply unmissable. Info: 02 62752700

RMC BAND PERFORMANCE

Thursday August 13, 1-2pm, Llewellyn Hall, School of Music

THE Australian National University's School of Music present this special free lunchtime performance by The Band of the Royal Military College. Its role for the Army and the is predominantly ceremonial, but off the parade ground it performs spectacularly as a concert band – come down and see for yourself!

MATCH TIMES

Soccer:

Women's, Fri 4pm v BnG
Men's, Fri 3pm v BnG

Netball: Monday 4pm v Griffin

AFL: Thurs 12pm v Griffin; Sun 1pm v Johns

INTERHALL PUBLIC SPEAKING

8pm, Tuesday August 1, Ursula Hall

REFINED through the fires of intra-hall competitions, eight speakers will attend Ursula Hall at 8 pm on Tuesday 11 August. Prepare to have your hats blown from your heads (that is, if you're rude enough to wear one indoors) in awe of the brave and formidable oral warriors.

Much banter will be had by all in what is sure to be an entertaining night of as much facetiousness as loquaciousness.

AT A GLANCE...

TUES:	Interhall Public Speaking
WEDS:	Public Lecture: Big History
THURS:	Public Lecture: Climate Change – the Implications for Australia and the World
FRI:	Murder Week Begins RMC Band Lunchtime Performance Dylan Moran: Off the Hook

ASK ANNE: DEVIOUS DINING HALL CREATIONS

IT'S been a long time dear Billitin readers! Worry not though; I have succeeded in strong-arming Harry into including my amazing advice with greater frequency. It's funny what you can get people to do when you dangle funding cuts over their head... #tyranttreasurer

Today I present to you some truly inventive dining hall creations: To the residents that have discovered these culinary revolutions, I doff my signature Bruce beanie (buy your very own from the office at the low low price of $20!).

1. Chicken Schnitty Wrap

I hate to break it to you: There will come a time when you will grow tired of chicken schnitty. It may not be next Tuesday, or the Tuesday after – but it will come. Fortunately, there is help available. By combining the forces of the humble lunch wrap with the divisive chicken schnitty, you can add some much-needed longevity to Tuesday dinners. Add some sweet chili sauce or mayo for an extra kick.

Pictured right:
I demonstrate one of my innovative cost-cutting tactics. If it isn't CRC money then there's no need to worry about a slight deficit!

2. Coco Pops and Milo

Sometimes, you just need comfort food – and nothing is more comforting than chocolate. The dining hall provides two options in this regard, but what's to stop us from combining them? This breakthrough in fusion cuisine is a truly remarkable leap forward in food that you enjoy at the time, but will instantly come to regret. If we're gonna spend $24,000 p.a. on Milo, you may as well go hard.

3. Cinnamon/Oats/Honey/Banana Breakfast Combo

I'm not sure exactly who started this trend (Kelsey?), but one thing is for certain: it's spreading faster than an infection at the Acads Foam Party. On their own, each of these ingredients (except banana, of course) is a bit 'meh', but together they form something that is legit pretty damn good. There's two catches, though: One, it's BYO cinnamon. Two: You have to get a banana before the fruit hoarders nick them all. Good luck!

PUBLIC LECTURE

Big History: Professor David Christian

Tuesday 11 Aug, 5pm, China in the World Auditorium

Big History is a new way of looking at our past, and takes a multi-disciplinary approach to fitting humans into the history of the universe. Professor David Christian has been the pioneer in this area, and is coming to talk with us about the ideas behind 'Big History'. Professor Christian has been leading the academic study of Big History, as well working with the support of Bill Gates to create the Big History Project to create tools for high school students.

Regardless of whether you are interested in history, science, or just interested in knowing more about our past, this event is designed for the curious. The event is being chaired by Deputy Vice-Chancellor, Professor Marnie Hughes-Warrington.

TRIVIA

1. What is Halloumi?
2. Which American talk-show host recently stepped down?
3. What was the final score in Saturday's Bledisloe Cup match?
4. Which George Bernard Shaw play follows the life of a saint?
5. Which monarch did Anne of Cleves marry?
6. What was Lincoln's profession before becoming president?
7. The Battle of Trafalgar was fought between the UK and which other country/countries?
8. ANU's Student Internet portal is named after a tree – what colour is the flower of this tree?

9. How old was Anne Frank when she began writing her diary?
10. In April 2015, Gwyneth Paltrow filed for divorce from the lead singer of which band?
11. In Pixar's Inside Out we follow the life of an 11-year-old girl - what is the girl's name?
12. South Africa completely landlocks which country?

France and Spain, 8. Gold/yellow, 9. 13. 10. Coliphilay, 11. Riley, 12. Lesotho
1. A type of cheese, 2. Jon Stewart, 3. Aus, NZ 27-19, 4. St. Joan, 5. Henry VIII, 6. Lawyer, 7.

